

Privacy Policy

It is the policy of Over The Hill Walking Club to act in accordance with current data protection legislation and to act in line with current best practice. We take your privacy seriously and will never pass your details to a third party.

We collect personal data provided by you when you join as a member including name, address, email address and telephone number etc. We use contact details to keep members informed about club news and events by mail, telephone and electronic means. From time to time we may also forward details of events or information from other organisations which the committee feels could be of interest to members and which are relevant to the club's activities. Where necessary for the operation of club events members' details may be published, for example telephone numbers of walk leaders will be included in the members' walk programme and photos of walks and events may be used on the website.

Over The Hill Walking Club may change this policy by updating the privacy policy held on our website. You should check this page from time to time to ensure that you are happy with any changes. If you have any concerns or questions they should be raised directly with the club either direct with any committee member or by using the 'contact us' form or contact details on the website.

Cookies

Our website uses cookies to help us improve, promote and protect our services. By continuing to use the site you agree to our cookie policy.

A cookie is a small text file stored on your computer or mobile device when you visit our website. Cookies are used to improve the services our web site provides, for example to measure anonymous usage so that we can improve the way the site works for you. For more information on cookies visit: - <http://www.bbc.co.uk/webwise/guides/about-cookies>.

You can also refer to your browser's instructions by clicking 'help' in the browser menu to learn more about managing cookies on your device.